

Spanish Grammar and Writing

Nivel 1

LE-602

Updated January 2024

80 hours/4 credits

I. Course description

This is a theoretical-practical course. In it the development of grammatical and written expression skills are combined. Level 1 coincides with Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and the Cervantes Curriculum Plan, therefore, those who opt for this course are supposed to have an A2/A1 level of Spanish so that they can request and give general information that allows them to function in an immersive environment for their survival in Spanish. Teaching and evaluation tool Portfolio will be used, since it allows an evaluation and self-evaluation not only of the results, but of the teaching-learning process in a qualitative way. Students will be provided with linguistic tools and written expression strategies so that they produce various types of texts considering the grammar rules of written Spanish. Intercultural competition will be developed transversally along the course, and it will be reinforced with cultural excursions to surrounding areas. Classes will be attended at UISIL campus.

II. Objectives: At the end of the course students will be able to:

- Have linguistic and lexicon elements to manage themselves and talk about simple topics such as family, hobbies, work, travel, etc.
- Express points of view and ideas on abstract topics such as movies, novels, etc.
- Write simple and cohesive texts on a series of everyday topics within their topics of interest linking a series of different short elements in a linear sequence.
- Write the description of a given event, a recent trip, real or imaginary.
- Tell a story.
- Summarize, communicate and offer their opinion with some certainty about specific facts related to their reality.
